SECURITY & PROTECTION

In a geopolitical context marked by mounting tension, the strategic sectors of security, defence, and sovereign industries such as health and telecommunications, are paramount as governments take on their duty of increased vigilance.

Jeantet, an independent business law firm based in France, has developed its own expertise team to support these strategic sectors.

Its specialist lawyers have in-depth knowledge of the military world and sovereignty issues and are very familiar with the area of economic intelligence and the specific aspects of such cases including special authorisations.

Jeantet is a partner of La Place Stratégique, whose ambition is to offer Young Strategic Companies a system of assistance and support for their development to enable them to maintain most of their strategic value in France.
